1. During the 17th & 18th centuries thousands of Europeans crossed the oceans in search of what?
   a. __________  __________  _____  _____________
      __________

2. European expansion was renewed in the nineteenth century because nations wanted to spread ideas of monarchy and feudalism. (circle the correct answer)
   True      False

3. European expansion was renewed in the nineteenth century because industrialized nations sought new territories as sources of _____ ____________ and as _______________ for their ____________.

4. ___________________ _______ prompted other countries to seek to build overseas empires.

5. European expansion was renewed in the nineteenth century because industrialized nations sought new territories as sources of _____ ____________
   and as ________ for their ________.

6. Which land acquisition doubled the size of the United States?
   __________________________________________
7. What kept the US from being totally isolated from world affairs?

__________________________________________________________________________

8. Who did Spain mistreat that resulted in the Spanish-American War?

__________________________________________________________________________

9. Due to European threats to intervene in Latin America what was added to the Monroe Doctrine?

__________________________________________________________________________

10. During the nineteenth century, British colonies were granted what right which later allowed independence without widespread revolt?

__________________________________________________________________________

11. What permitted French Canadians the right to retain their language, law, and customs and to practice freely their Roman Catholic religion?

__________________________________________________________________________

12. Who were Australia's original settlers?

__________________________________________________________________________

13. Who were the first Europeans to settle South Africa?

__________________________________________________________________________
Chapter 19 Guide SE - Europe Expands Overseas

14. What caused thousands of miners to pour into South Africa?

___________________________________________________

15. Who was the man who led an army over the Andes Mountains to free Chile and Peru from the Spanish?

___________________________________________________

16. Who declared Brazil independent and became its emperor?

___________________________________________________

17. Name three problems Latin American nations faced.
   a) ______________________________________________
   b) ______________________________________________
   c) ______________________________________________

18. In what country did the battle of Plassey help ensure British dominance?

___________________________________________________

19. Which Briton led his forces to defeat the Indian ruler of Bengal in 1757?

___________________________________________________

20. Who led the revolt in the Sepoy Mutiny?

___________________________________________________
Chapter 19 Guide SE - Europe Expands Overseas

21. What were the wars between China and Great Britain fought over?

_____________________________________________________________________

22. What does the term extraterritoriality refer to?

_____________________________________________________________________

23. Why did the Boxer Rebellion occur?

_____________________________________________________________________

24. Which American opened Japan's doors to trade with the United States?

_____________________________________________________________________

25. Which treaty was the first treaty Japan ever signed with a Western nation?

_____________________________________________________________________

26. What is the significance of the Meiji Period?

_____________________________________________________________________

27. The European slave traders captured the slaves in Africa themselves to ensure that they had those who were the most physically fit. (Circle the correct answer)

True  False

28. The Spanish imported black slaves from Africa to the New World because their survival rate was better than the Indians'. (Circle the correct answer)

True  False
29. About 80% of all slaves brought to the New World arrived between 1700 and 1850. (Circle the correct answer)

True     False

30. About 1/4 of all slaves who left Africa died during the voyage across the Atlantic. (Circle the correct answer)

True     False

31. Who founded the famous Foreign Legion, an elite army unit in West Africa?

___________________________________________________

32. The Anglo-Russian Entente divided what country into three parts?

___________________________________________________

33. What was the most positive result of imperialism?

___________________________________________________

34. The mysterious explosion of what ship precipitated the Spanish-American War?

___________________________________________________

35. Which Englishmen was an early explorer of Australia and New Zealand?

___________________________________________________

36. Who was the "liberator" who led the struggle for freedom in the northern portion of South America?

___________________________________________________
37. What term applies to ambitious military leaders in Latin America?

___________________________________________________

38. Who was the Baptist missionary to India?

___________________________________________________

39. Who was the pioneer missionary to China?

___________________________________________________

40. Who was the missionary to the cannibals of West Africa?

___________________________________________________

41. Who explored the Congo for Belgium; hired by a newspaper to find another explorer in the interior of Africa?

___________________________________________________

42. Who was the missionary-explorer who spent his life among the Africans?

___________________________________________________

43. What is the term used for Dutch farmers?

___________________________________________________

44. What is the term used to describe Spaniards born in Spain who represented the king in Latin America?

___________________________________________________
45. What is the term used to describe Spaniards born in the New World?

___________________________________________________

46. What is the term used to describe those of mixed Indian and Spanish blood?

___________________________________________________

47. What is the term used to describe ambitious military leaders in Latin America who overthrew governments and ruled to their own advantage?

___________________________________________________

48. What is the term used to describe soldiers from India?

___________________________________________________

49. Who purchased the Louisiana Territory from Napoleon for the United States?

___________________________________________________

50. Who was US president who stated that Europe could NOT colonize any more in North and South America?

___________________________________________________

51. Who was the US president who refused European interventions in Latin America for any reason; only the US was allowed to intervene?

___________________________________________________
52. Who was the empire-builder who sought a string of land in Africa "from Cape to Cairo"?

___________________________________________________

53. Who was the king of Belgium who conquered the Congo?

___________________________________________________

54. Frontier states of the US did not enter the union on an equal basis with the original colonies. (Circle the correct answer)

True  False

55. The United States has historically favored alliances with European forces. (Circle the correct answer)

True  False

56. Latin American countries experienced great instability in government after gaining independence. (Circle the correct answer)

True  False

57. True or False? Japan's loss to China in the Sino-Japanese War forced Japan to grant more trade concessions to the West. (Circle the correct answer)

True  False