1. “With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in, to bind up the nations wounds, to care for him who shall have borne the battle and for his widow and his orphan, to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations” Whose speech is this?

2. When was Lincoln assassinated?

3. Lincoln's vice president. Took over as 17th president after Lincoln's death?

4. Period following the Civil War in which the US government attempted to rebuild the South and the nation as a whole went through changes, 1865-1877?

5. Lincoln's plan for restoration. Civilian government would be restored in Confederate states when 10% of those who had voted in 1860 pledged allegiance to the Union?

6. This group of Congressmen was in opposition to Lincoln’s reconstruction plans?

7. Required military governors for each Southern state until a majority of white adult males swore allegiance. It also denied former Confederate leaders the right of suffrage and holding of office, abolished slavery, and repudiated Confederate war debts?
8. Forbade the president from dismissing cabinet members without the consent of Congress?
____________________________________________________

9. What is an impeachment?
____________________________________________________

10. What did the Thirteenth Amendment (1865) do?
____________________________________________________

11. What did the Fourteenth Amendment (1868) do?
____________________________________________________
____________________________________________________
____________________________________________________

12. What was the purpose of the Fifteenth Amendment (1870)?
____________________________________________________
____________________________________________________

13. Imposed military occupation on the South. It divided the remaining ten Confederate states into five military districts. Appointed governors were told to keep peace. States were "reconstructed" after they established a constitution with the 14th and 15th amendments incorporated?
____________________________________________________

14. Founded in 1865 to help newly freed slaves. When Congress took control of reconstruction, the bureau helped protect the rights of the recently freed?
____________________________________________________
15. Codes established in the South meant to regulate the conduct of the former slaves, often unfairly?

__________________________________________________________

16. First black man to serve in Congress, Senator from Mississippi, (1870)?

__________________________________________________________

17. Term used by Southerners to define Northern Radical Republicans who moved to the South?

__________________________________________________________

18. Term used by Southerners to define other Southerners who cooperated with the Radical Republicans?

__________________________________________________________

19. Denial of the right to vote was called?

__________________________________________________________

20. Group of angry Southern democrats who wanted vengeance for what they viewed as injustice toward them by the Reconstruction government. The turned to violence against carpetbaggers, scalawags, and black people. They threatened black people against using their new rights?

__________________________________________________________

21. A system in which land was leased by landowners to be worked by a farmer in return for labor, money, or crops?

__________________________________________________________
22. Those leading the fight against Radical rule in the South?

________________________________________________________________________

23. 18th President. Pillar of honesty and strength. Campaign slogan: "Let us have peace." Was a weak president. He was not suited or prepared for politics. Though he was honest, his administration was full of corruption?

________________________________________________________________________

24. Term that became synonymous with political corruption?

________________________________________________________________________

25. Scandal involving paying of government officials and stockholders after the railroad company padded expenses?

________________________________________________________________________

26. A group of whiskey distillers and distributors and federal tax collectors who planned to cheat the government of millions in revenue from excise taxes?

________________________________________________________________________

27. A democratic political organization that controlled most of New York City's political affairs in the latter half of the 1800s. The city debt increased drastically because leaders of the organization diverted city funds into their own pockets. There was also corruption involving them regarding elections?

________________________________________________________________________

28. Head of Tammany Hall?

________________________________________________________________________

29. Famous republican cartoonist of this era?

________________________________________________________________________
30. The corruption of the Grant administration and the excesses of Radical Reconstruction in the South offended some elements within the Republican Party. As a result, a splinter group decided to oppose Grant’s reelection in 1872?

31. A compromised-upon candidate chosen by the Liberal Republicans and their Democratic allies?

32. A financial collapse that touched off a six-year depression?

33. Paper dollars issued by Congress at the war’s beginning?

34. Republican candidate for President in the election of 1876?

35. Democratic candidate for President in the election of 1876?

36. Secret meeting between Republicans and Southern Democrats. The democrats agreed to agree that Hayes won the election if the last federal troops were removed from the South?

37. Name for the South because of its resistance to the Reconstruction and Radical Republicanism and its commitment to the Democratic Party?